Military History

D-Day: The Battle for Normandy by Antony Beevor, Cameron Stewart

Renowned military historian Antony Beevor, author of the best-selling Stalingrad and The Fall of Berlin 1945, here uses the words of a U.S. infantryman to evoke the famous June 6, 1944 landing at Omaha Beach, part of the massive Operation Overlord, when the Allies invaded Nazi-occupied France and began pushing Hitler's armies eastward into the German fatherland. The focus swivels with meticulous precision to illuminate the military, political, and personal dynamics on all sides, offering the perspectives of the American, British, Canadian, French, and German militaries.

Overlord's Eagles : Operations of the United States Army Air Forces in the Invasion of Normandy in World War II

by John J. Sullivan

On June 6, 1944, the Allies launched Operation Overlord, the largest amphibious assault in history. This account of the operation makes use of many wartime records that were previously classified. B&w historical photos are included. Sullivan served in the US Marine Corps in WWII. Annotation ©2004 Book

Post 9/11 Montgomery GI Bill Cheat Sheet

Step 1: Decide if it is the best Chapter of benefits for you. In most cases the choice is between the “old” Montgomery GI Bill (Chapter 30), Chapter 1606 or 1607 for Selected Reserve versus the new Post 9/11 GI Bill (Chapter 33). See the VA website for details of each program. www.gibill.va.gov

Step 2: If you are electing the Post 9/11 GI Bill, make sure you understand that it is irrevocable.

Step 3: Electing the Post 9/11 GI Bill

a. If you have a different chapter that you must give up in order to elect the Post 9/11 such as the “old” MGIB Chapter 30, then you must complete VA Form 22-1990. After processed, you will receive a Letter of Eligibility from the VA.

It can be completed on the VONAPP website at: <http://vabenefits.vba.va.gov/vonapp/main.asp> OR,

You can find the form at www.gibill.va.gov, complete it and mail it in.

b. If you were not eligible for MGIB (i.e. Academy, ROTC etc) then there is no step required to elect the Post 9/11 GI Bill. However, it is highly recommended that you complete the VA Form 22-1990 and so that you will receive and can keep a “Letter of Eligibility” from the VA.

Step 4: Transferring Benefits of Post 9/11 GI Bill to spouse and dependent children

a. Understand your Service Commitment and duty to repay any failing grades. Reenlist, extend, or complete Reserve Service Commitment at this time if you do not have the required retainability.

b. Make sure that your dependents names are spelled correctly and dates of birth are correct in DEERS. The information from DEERS will automatically fill in the TEB worksheet online.

c. Go to the Transferability of Educational Benefits (TEB) website: www.dmdc.osd.mil/TEB/ and complete the form to transfer benefits. Use is securely accessed with a Common Access Card, a DoD Self Service User ID, or a DFAS PIN.

d. You can change the number of months of benefits later. It is best to register any dependant that might need benefits with a minimum of one month.

e. After the TEB is processed, you will receive a Statement of Understanding you must complete and send back in. This might take up to a few weeks. Forward a signed copy to your Wing Training Office. They can forward it directly to HQ AFRC.

f. Dependants complete VA Form 1990 e when they are ready to start using benefits BEFORE starting school. www.va.gov/vaforms

A group of Sergeants and a group of Air Force Officers take a train to a conference. Each Officer holds a ticket. But the entire group of Sergeants has bought only one ticket for a single passenger. The Officers are just shaking their heads and are secretly pleased that the arrogant Sergeants will finally get what they deserve.

Suddenly one of the Sergeants calls out: "The conductor is coming!". At once, all the Sergeants jump up and squeeze into one of the toilets. The conductor checks the tickets of the Officers. When he notices that the toilet is occupied he knocks on the door and says: "Ticket, please!" One of the Sergeants slides the single ticket under the doors and the conductor continues merrily on his round.

For the return trip the Officers decide to use the same trick. They buy only one ticket for the entire group but they are baffled as they realize that the Sergeants didn't buy any tickets at all. After a while one of the Sergeants announces again: "The conductor is coming!" Immediately all the Officers race to a toilet and lock themselves in.

All the Sergeants leisurely walk to the other toilet. Before the last Sergeant enters the toilet, he knocks on the toilet occupied by the Officers and says: "Ticket, please!"

And the moral of the story? Officers like to use the methods of the Sergeants, but they don't really understand them.
